

A SONG in the Comedy call'd THE WAY OF THE WORLD, the Words by M^r. Congreve, Set to Musick by M^r. John Eccles, Sung by M^r. Hodgson, and exactly engrav'd by Tho: Cross.

Love, Love, Love, Love but the frai... ..lty; the frai... ..lty of the Mind: When tis not, tis not with Ambition joynd: When tis not, tis not with Ambition joynd; tis not with Ambition joynd: When tis not, tis not with Ambition joynd: When tis not, tis not with Ambition joynd: When tis not, tis not with An = bition joynd, tis not with Ambition joynd: When tis not, tis not with Ambition joynd.
 A sickly, sickly, sickly Flame; a sickly, sickly, sickly Flame; which if not fed, if not fed, expires; and feeding wastes, and feeding wastes in self-consuming, consuming Fires: And feeding wastes, and feeding wastes in self, in self-consuming Fires; in self, in self-consuming Fires. 'Tis not to wound a wa... ..nton, wanton